6. (Unclassified - GLC) Jim Lowenstein, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called and asked for copies of "the papers" which established the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board and its current membership which he would also like to have. I told Lowenstein I would check on this and be in touch with him. Mr. Maury then made arrangements with [REDACTED] of the PFIAB staff, to 25X1A contact Lowenstein directly to provide him with the appropriate information.

7. (Confidential - GLC) Hand-carried to J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, biographical data on [REDACTED]

Mr. Sourwine apologized that he had not been able thus far to get Senator Eastland to place into the Congressional Record the letter from [REDACTED] because of the press of the Judiciary Committee hearings on the Supreme Court nominations. He said he hoped the nominations would be concluded today and that the Senator would get [REDACTED] letter 25X1C in the Record tomorrow. Arrangements have been made with Senator Eastland's office to obtain 100 copies of a reprint of the item as it appears in the Record.

8. (Unclassified - GLC) Dropped by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and picked up copies of the two Foreign Aid bills (S. 2819 and S. 2820) and the Committee reports on them, and confirmed that these bills would be taken up by the Senate tomorrow. Although split into separate bills for economic and military assistance, the legislation is virtually the same as the original Foreign Aid bill (H.R. 9910), except for changes in funding levels.

9. (Confidential - GLC) Mr. Sam Goldberg, Legislative Assistant to Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.) [REDACTED] called to say that in a conversation with him on the subject of Mr. Helms' new duties the Senator expressed a desire to come out to the Agency (as he has in the past) for a breakfast meeting with the Director. Goldberg suggested I check with Mrs. Arline MacArthur, the Senator's personal secretary, if the Director was available for such a meeting. I told him I would be back in touch with them on this.
